La Frontera Publishing presents Broken Promises, its latest collection of thirteen fictional short stories and one novella about the Wild West from America's newest Western writers, authors who may become tomorrow's legends of Western literature.

The West was built on a handshake and a promise. But sometimes those promises were broken, and the consequences could be fearful. Whether it was the nation's broken promises to tribal leaders, or a vow to revenge a wounded heart, the price would have to be paid in blood and tears.

Here for you are the works of Dave Fisher, a two-time winner of the Will Rogers Medallion Award; D.B. Jackson, a winner the Western Heritage Wrangler Award, the Will Rogers Medallion Award, and the Western Fictioneers Peacemaker Award; W. Michael Farmer, a finalist for a Western Writers of America Spur award for best first novel and a New Mexico Book Awards Finalist for Historical Fiction; and Carol Crigger, Jake Garrett, Jerry Guin, Doug Hocking, Mike Long, Deanna McCall, R.A. Quist, Vicky Rose, Glen Singer, Wesley Tallant, and Jim Williams, writers who have their own unique story-telling talent.

Gripping tales of the Wild West from America's newest Western writers, authors who may become tomorrow's legends of Western literature.

About the Editor

Michael T. Harris has been a fan of the Old West since he was a boy hearing stories about Wyatt Earp, Wild Bill Hickok, Buffalo Bill Cody and Jim Bridger.
